Dorcas
giving help to a poor widow at Joppa

↔ FILL ME UP LORD ↔

Lord, it's three in the morning again,
and, yes, I am awake.
If you will, I know you can reach down and take my troubles away,
or maybe I'm running on empty,
and it's time for you to fill me up,
before depression can tempt me.
Lord, please fill my cup with your loving, healing potion of grace which knows no bounds.
Your love is like a shoreless ocean, it never ceases to astound me and I'm certain it never will—as I come to the never-ending fountain so that I can drink my fill.

DORCAS The local Christian Women Fellowship was founded in 1907 in Ponca City, Oklahoma.

Dorcas was the first chapter of CWF in the First Christian church in Ponca City, Oklahoma. Martha, Mary, Rachel, Ruth, Esther and Naomi chapters followed.

The members met in their homes to do bible study, discussed current events and provided outreach to the community.

An axillary was organized in Ponca City, Sunday, June 1907 by sister Lucy, with ten members.

- Mrs Barnes
- Mrs Baker
- Mrs Carson
- Mrs Clark
- Mrs Herrod
- Mrs Heisford
- Mrs Smith
- Mrs Johnston
