↔️➡️ SPARROW ↔️➡️

Life was never meant to be anything but lovely and free,
until man had to disobey
and let his greed get in the way.
But God's willing to cut him some slack,
if he'll just repent and find his way back.
If he would turn to love and give up hate,
I don't believe it is too late.
I think that God would welcome one,
the same way he welcomed
the prodigal son—
for God loves his children
and wants them home.
It's too dangerous for them to roam
outside his loving, protective care.
He knows every sparrow.
He counts every hair.
He needs us to complete his family plan,
every last woman, child, and man.

GOBLINS IN THE GAZEBO

The Goblins are going to be haunting the Gazebo again this year! We need some worker bees (no you don't have to dress like a bee . . . but you could) to greet our ghoulish friends on Thursday, October 17 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. We also need wrapped Halloween candy! The candy can be dropped off at the church any time before the 17th. This is a great opportunity to interact with our community and support this Main Street activity. It is sure to be a "spook"tacular time!
